

Ruby Ann Binkley

June 21, 2024

Ruby Ann Paiyou Binkley, “Nanny,” passed away with her daughter, Stephanna, by her side on June 21, 2024. Ruby was born in Hannibal, Missouri, to Spears Stanely (Steve) Paiyou and Cora Virginia Ruby on April 1, 1937.

When Ruby was five, she became the much-loved sister to Steve. Steve adored his big sister. Shortly after Steve turned four, along came her other siblings, Judy, Sam, and Phyllis, who all loved their big sister just as much. In 1959, the angel baby, Russel Stanely was born, who would only be on earth a short while.

When Ruby was a young teenager, her family relocated to Texas, and she truly found home. She loved the warm climate, the job opportunities, and the Galveston beaches. She married a former Marine, Sandy Coppock, who had just returned from the Korean War and was raising a young daughter. That child, Linda, became her own. Together, Ruby and Sandy had two more children, Stephanna and Timothy, before eventually divorcing.

In 1979, Ruby met the love of her life, James “Bink” Binkley. Ruby and James had great adventures; what James often referred to as making memories. They spent countless weekends at the Galveston Yacht Basin aboard the Saint and Saint II and traveled throughout the US, the Caribbean, and Mexico.

Ruby truly took the vow of “In Sickness and Health” to heart and was at James’ side for every hospital stay until he drew his last breath.

Family meant everything to Ruby. She was very close to Stephanna and Tim’s children and grandchildren. She had a special bond with them and celebrated their every success.

Special thanks to the following:

Cardiologists Dr. Mustafa Mandviwala who saved Mom in November 2021, and more recently, Dr. Taher Mandviwala. She had the utmost respect and trust in both of you. We will forever be grateful for your care and compassion. To Tisha Tims, Mom’s caregiver, friend, companion, champion, and co-conspirator. We can never repay you for your care and kindness.

Ruby was preceded in death by her beloved husband James A. Binkley, her parents Steve and Cora Paiyou, brothers Russell Stanely and Samuel Otis Paiyou, and brothers-in-law Wayne White and David Carpenter.

Survivors include:

Brother, Steve and Darlene Paiyou, Nephews Stevie and Ronnie Paiyou and families; Sisters Judy Carpenter, Nephew Darrin Wright, Nieces Michelle Jones and Shauna Brown and families; and Phyllis White, Niece: Julie Stottlemeyer and family.

“ I was 6 & Momma was 17 when she became my Momma!
Momma was creative. We actually had a kiln in our back room & I got to help her do ceramics. She was a good artist too!
She could sew & when I was about 10, Momma made me a beautiful polished cotton dress with a huge full skirt. It made me feel beautiful. I loved it!
Momma also taught me to grow a flower garden. She always planted pansies in early spring. And kept several African violets in the kitchen window sill. I got to help & we'd plant gladiolus, irises, zinnias, bachelor buttons.
Of course she did Christmas to the max...lots of decorations & gift wrapping...& I got to help! She always made it so special. She could cut such a straight line with scissors just by eyeballing it. I sure didn't get that talent!
She passed a little of all that on to me, but I see it in much greater measure in my sister, Stephanna. Stephie, thank you for taking such good care of Momma all this time.
Love you, Momma! See you in Heaven!
You daughter, Linda K ❤️🕊️❤️

“ Nanny, my heart hurts that you are no longer with us, but I am glad you are no longer in pain. We made memories together to last a lifetime. I am Blessed to have had you as my Grandma for 49 years, and 8 months. Save me a seat up there, until we meet again.

“ Ruby had a heart of gold. I always knew I could count on an honest and candid response from Ruby, no matter the subject. I remember when my oldest daughter was born, Ruby gave her a beautiful White 1st Easter dress. Her generosity and kindness warmed many hearts.
