“ Such a short time I knew Sandy through our girls softball, but it was impactful. She is a kind loving soul and we had lots of laughs and shared lots of stories over the time we spent. She is missed greatly and I can't wait to see her when I get to Heaven.

“ Bryce, we’ve been friends for over a quarter century. In that time you & Sandy have always been the epitome of what wonderful parents should be and God has blessed you with such an amazing family. Sandy truly had a heart of gold and was one of the kindest, sweetest persons I’ve known. God favored you when He brought Sandy into your life. What a beautiful soul that brought light, happiness and three amazing children into this world. Her legacy is one of love and Christian servitude. Dillon, Tyler and Katelyn are a reflection of Sandy’s golden heart and joy. It’s an honor and privilege to have known her and your family. Sharing our sincere love and sympathy. God’s peace and love be upon you all.

“ Sandra and I worked together for about 10 years. As two women in a male-dominated career, we clicked. We were more like Work-Sisters than Work Friends. We shared challenges, laughter, tears, blessings and our faith in the LORD. I am so blessed to have known you, Sandra! I loved you like a sister. I'm thankful that I was able to see you before you went home, and thankful that I will see you when I get there. Love and peace to your family.
