

Sarah "Nan" "Yaya" Hailey

January 10, 2025

To know Nan is to have never met a stranger. She had a way about her to make you feel at home, welcomed and loved. Always a giving person, she would give the shirt off her back or the last penny to her name if she thought you needed it. She was always there to listen, advise, comfort or tickle whenever and whatever time you needed. A mother not only to her two boys but to every child she took into her home or that had come into her life. She loved her grandchildren so deeply as if she was their mother. Getting up in the middle of the night to cook for them or having them crawl into bed with her. She loved every minute of it. Her great-grandchildren were no exception to that! She loved to spend every minute she could with them. She was ready and willing for any and every thing that involved family, grandkids and great-grandkids. Sarah had a strong sense of family instilled by her mother. To her family was your true blessing. To say she will greatly be missed is an understatement she will be forever missed and always in our hearts. We love you Nanny!

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Hailey family during this difficult time.

“ Sarah - I know it's hard for your family to be without you. But I believe you gave them so much time and love that they have something to carry around in their hearts forever. So glad we got to go on that cruise together. You were brave and were determined to have a good time even though you were in pain. I really admired you for that. Love you cousin.

“ Oh dear sweet Sarah....you are already missed by so many. Our lives will always be missing that piece of our heart that belonged to only you. Always there to share a laugh, give a hug, offer a world of wisdom, and give the best unconditional love anyone person could ask for. We know where you are, and try to draw comfort with that knowledge...but our hearts will forever be broken because you're not here with us! To David, Michael, Mildred and all of your families- we are sending all of our love and prayers to each of you. Rest now sweet Sarah...this is not goodbye—we will see you later. All my love...always-Julie and Doody
