“ Gayle was my sister in law and I had the great experience of knowing her and her husband David Laman. She was one of the most loving and giving person I've ever met. She always made coffee when Paul (David's older brother) would visit and we would always try to solve the problems of the world. Gayle, you will be missed

“ I first met Gayle when I went to work for Proctor & Gamble. We became friends, roommates and eventually sister in-laws. I was from the country. Gayle was from the city. The first time I asked her to go spend the weekend in the country at my family's home, was an experience I will never forget. She saw a chicken lay an egg! She was shocked. We laughed and never forgot her expression. We loved Gayle. We have wonderful memories.
