“ Sherry had been a great mentor. I survived the challenges of being a new nurse in Sysco through her calming reassurance that everything will be OK. With her motivation and her positive demeanor towards difficulties, encouraged me to hold on, to keep going in my new endeavor. Kind hearted person. She is truly missed. I am grateful for her life and the bond that we had, being my awesome manager. Having the same faith, I know she is now the presence of our Maker. “Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!”. Thank you for taking good care of me. Rest in peace Boss. To the bereaved family , my sincere condolence.

“ Sherry, your words and calm spirit were always so comforting. You always knew exactly what to say to make everything better. Your never ending faith in God was so amazing. You always said, God has a plan and although we don't know what it is, he's got it covered. You will be so missed as a friend and a colleague. My deepest sympathy goes out to your family. May God keep them and comfort them through this most difficult time. Rest in peace my beautiful friend.

“ Sherry was a hugger and a gusher. She had this way of pulling you into a hug and just gushing about you nonstop, making you feel like you were the most important person in the room. And she always smelled so good. Anywhere she was near, there was always this intoxicating aroma. I could always smell her on my clothes long after she had hugged me. That was what I thought of immediately when I heard that she had slipped from this earth into the presence of God. There was this sweet aroma about Sherry both in body and spirit. I will really miss that hug.

We feel so blessed to have had the privilege to worship and fellowship with her. Our lives are richer for having known her. We are praying for you Tager family.

“ Sherry,
I will truly miss you and our conversations. She helped me through a difficult time at work with positive words with a caring and compassionate manner. She could when needed scold (guide you) in such a sweet professional manner that you didn't even realize you were being scolded:) Lol. She would continue to check in with me to see how I was emotionally and send prayers for me and my family. We shared a love of Pitbull's when I told her about mine named Chopper that is a 10 year old emotional support dog, her response was.

"I can't believe your dog's name is Chopper. My Chopper is the daddy to my dog Tank. Chopper now lives with my son and his family and he is 10 years old, too.

I love my Choppee, as I call him. Every time I go to my son's house, I bring Choppee a treat. He's huge, just stout and solid. I love him".

I pray for peace and guidance for her family and friends, she was a ray of sunshine as I know she will be smiling down on us each.

My sincere condolence's, you will always be in my heart.

“ When my youngest daughter was born in May, I picked out the outfit that Sherry had purchased for her to wear in the hospital. She knew how much I had been praying and she knew how much this baby was wanted. She was one of the first people at the church that I told when I found out Annelyse was on her way. She prayed with me and for me and told me everything was gonna be okay and I believed her.

After the baby arrived, she knew I was struggling with my new body and made sure to tell me every time she saw me that I looked beautiful and hugged me with such love. She encouraged me and told me I was a great mom and doing a great job. She was one of a kind.

I can't fully express just how much she meant to me. To be honest, I can't fathom that I won't see her again this side of Heaven. My heart is hurting. The best way to describe how I feel is "gutted".

BUT...

She wouldn't want me to be this sad. She wouldn't want me to hang my head. So I will choose to rejoice that she made it! She finished her course. I won't say goodbye, I'll just say see you later.

I love you Sherry! Always and forever. ❤️

To her precious family, I am praying for you all and want you to know she was SO loved by her MAT church family. We will miss her tremendously!!

“ I have lost a very good and dear friend. I will miss her laugh and our good talks. We both are obsessed with our four legged furry family members and would laugh at ourselves about how obsessed we were. We always said dogs are angels on earth to man. I will miss our talks about how good God is no matter what trial or tribulations we were facing at that time in our lives. It is with that thought that comforts me as I know she is with Jesus and the love of her life - George Michael.

She is with Jesus sooner than I want, but I know she would not want to come back after being with Jesus. Even her beloved Tank does not compare to what she has now. I love you and will miss you each day my sweet friend.

Until we meet again standing in the glory of God.

“ Many loving memories I carry with me, about my sweet aunt Sherry. She will be dearly missed, but never forgotten. My soul is warmed in knowing she is in heaven and with her spouse again, but my human mind asks why so sudden and unexpected. We never know our time... So we must love, enjoy the time we have with each other (on this earth), and keep our hearts and minds strong for those that need us.
