

Sidney Joseph Fabregas

January 20, 2005

FABREGAS

Sydney Joseph Fabregas, age 78, native of Houma, Louisiana and resident of Pinehurst, Texas died January 20, 2005. He is survived by his wife Beryl Jackson Fabregas, three sons, Kenneth Fabregas and wife, Shannon of Pinehurst, TX; Kerry Fabregas of Magnolia; Tommy Fabregas and wife, Krista of Stafford, TX; daughter Peggy Perkins and husband, Larry of Highlandville, MO; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild; and sister, Margaret Fabregas Canafax of Houma, LA. He was preceded in death by his parents, Martin L. and Annie Chauvin Fabregas; brothers Ernest, Frank, and Martin; sisters, Leonore Fabregas La Coste and Annie Fabregas Dishman. He served in the United States Marine Corps during World War II. Mr. Fabregas was an active member of Piney Woods "A" Club, Coastal Plains Airstream Club, Magnolia Chamber of Commerce, and a faithful member of St. Matthias Catholic Church in Magnolia, TX. He was retired from Homco International as International Sales and Product Manager. The family will receive friends Tuesday evening from 6:00 to 8:00 at Magnolia Funeral Home with a Catholic Vigil Wake service beginning at 7:00. The Funeral Service will be at 11:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 26th, at St. Matthias Catholic Church in Magnolia, TX followed by a private interment at the V.A. Houston National Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

TG

“ Beryl,
So sorry for your loss! Like Richard, I think we all have funny Joe stories. We've all had a chance to remember them in the last few days. It's unfortunate that we didn't learn when the service was to be held early enough that the old HOMCO c

Tina Graviano Graham - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

RS

“ Beryl,
I am sorry to hear of Joe's death Bonnie and I offer our condolences. One thing that your hole family can always say is that he enjoyed his life and lived life to the fullest and was respected by all. The day before I heard of Joe's death I w

RICHARD SEGURA - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM

EP

“ Edwina And Marvin Peyton lit a candle in memory of Sidney Joseph Fabregas

Edwina and Marvin Peyton - August 08, 2018 at 12:00 AM