“ I'm truly so sorry to hear of Sieglinde's passing. My mom and Siegi (as she was known) became good friends when my parents moved to the Houston area in 1990 and would frequent the Alpine German Restaurant where Siegi used to work. She was such a fun loving person. I have good memories of my mom and Siegi sitting at our kitchen table and chatting away in German while having a beer. Truly the world is a little sadder now, but heaven is a little brighter. I know my mom and Siegi are together again talking and laughing in heaven. Also, in my heart Sieglinde, you will always be a Tiger Lily. Love and condolences to all,
Claudia
