“ I will always remember Snider, the very kind and gracious man as one our favorite people. Snider and Dorothy became a blessing to our lives when they agreed to ignore our craziness: they were always ready for an adventure. I am including my late husband Hilton because we both agreed that Snider and Dorothy were an inspiration to us both. I especially remember Snider's extreme patience when he tried to teach me accounting. I hope he knew how much I appreciated that extremely difficult endeavor. I know that Snider will be missed by many. I know that Hilton and all of Snider's departed friends are celebrating Snider's arrival in Glory.

“ I will never forget working with Snider on the bylaws committee, talking with him on his walks and watching him in action at board meetings. He was so supportive, intelligent, kind. And funny. Snider's eyes always lit up greeting his friends on his walks. He was an inspiration, a gem, a friend who will always be cherished and missed.
