“ I am just now finding out. She was a very close friend and we went to high school together. We used to hang out with her parents at the tomball movie theater. Sorry I never got to meet-up with you again.

“ Stacy always had a big heart. Even when she was unable to help herself, she always found a way to help anyone she knew that needed it. Stacy and I had been there for each other so many times. When neither of us had no one else to turn to we always understood each other and what it was the other always needed. I love you Stacy always and forever. I will never forget you. You will forever be in the hearts of everyone you touched. Now you can watch over all of us from Heaven . So you rest in peace my dear friend for you are no longer in any pain. We will always love you Stacy.
