“ Mom, I wish you were still here to see Elissa and Emma. They're growing so fast. I'm the luckiest Aunt to have two awesome nieces. I wish we could all spend more time together. I know that's what you'd love the most. We all miss you. It's hard to talk about you without being sad. But that doesn't mean we aren't always thinking of you. You were the light in so many of our lives. We miss you dearly.

I miss you so much Mother. You were my star and You were my songbird too.. I still have the notes you wrote me on the tags of gifts you'd give me. I'll keep them forever. I love you and I hope we will see each other again someday...

I wish I could put into words how lovely you are. How much you mean to me..

You were always there, no matter what. I am going to really miss how dorky you were because it was so endearing and funny when you'd make your little corny jokes or you'd bust out into a song because we said something that made you think of a lyric. You were such a good hearted woman. A real woman. A strong woman. You taught me so many things,.. and I hope you know how much you mean to me, to all of us.

*Forever and always,
Jessica Lea - Your songbird, your shining star..*
