“ Terry was my big brother and I will truly miss him and his sarcasm. We had the typical brother/sister relationship when we were younger, but he truly became one of my protectors once we got older. While my selfish heart is broken, I know he's in a better place and we will be together again one day. RIP big brother! 💙

While I'm sad for Karen and all the family I know that Terry is in the arms of Jesus and is no longer suffering. Until we meet again.....
Love to all, Bill and Velta

Terry was my cousin. We all grew up together. He was a good and selfless man. Even during his illness, he would drop everything and go help my mother in her last years. He always told her that it didn't matter if he was sick, he would always be there for her. They have now reunited in Heaven. I love and will miss Terry!

I have known Terry since he was a young child. It was amazing how he was a testimony to everyone with the way he lived and coped with his illness. I have never seen anyone else who had such a lengthy illness and kept his faith so, so strong. He was so strong through it all. God always had him in the palm of his hands!! I will be saying prayers for the whole family and he will truly be missed!!!!
