“ I always called her aunt Thelma Jean. I remember she made me a dress for vacation Bible school graduation. Michelle had a blue one and mine was white with strawberries on it. There are no words to say except you'll see her again one day

“ I had the pleasure of meeting and working with Officer Jeri Carpenter when she was a City Marshal with City of Magnolia. I worked as a Police Officer in the City of Stagecoach. Jeri and I really bonded since we both were usually looking for the same people that had outstanding warrants. She knew everybody and was always professional. She loved law enforcement. I admired her work ethics and her humor. We became a team and we would always check by with each other as a safety precaution when needed. Jeri got the nickname “Scary Jeri” because it was only a matter of time when she would catch up to you. When Jeri and I would meet up she would talk about her family and how much she enjoyed being with them. My only regret was not being able to work together when she retired and how much I missed her companionship. We did talk periodically after and she would tell me how much fun she was having spending time with her grandchildren. Jeri was a great police officer and a great mentor. It was sad to hear she is no longer among us but I know that god has a great position in mind for her above. Love you Jeri and may our memories of you never be forgotten. 🚔

“ *Jerri was such a sweet loving person. We were classmates and friend since Jr. High. She always had a bright smile. When we got together for lunch with other classmate, we always set next to each other. Jerri joked that we were twins because of our white hair. I am going to miss her. “ Ms Jerri was one of the first people to make me feel accepted and loved when I first came to Magnolia many years ago! I was a waitress then and she always had a smile on her face and said " Hello Kiddo"! We always had many conversations about animals, where we were living, and just in general Magnolia! She was always worried about everyone else and never herself! I looked up to her as being a very strong beautiful woman! When I go to Walmart I always went to her line when she was a cashier! I know in my ❤️ she's happy and looking down from heaven still watching over Magnolia! I will truly miss her and always carry a part of our memories in my heart!
