

Thomas Aubrey Foxworth

November 4, 2020

Thomas (Tom) Aubrey Foxworth, Jr was rescued from many years of pain by Jesus on November 4, 2020 at the age of 78 in Shenandoah, Texas.

Born in San Antonio, Texas to Thomas and Marjorie Foxworth, Tom was the second of six children and the first boy. Tom was greeted in heaven by his mother, father and half brother Robert Powers, oldest sister, Barbara Briggs, and daughter Kris Tijerina. He is survived by his wife of 41 years, Judy, children Rhonda Foxworth, Jenny (John) Sanchez, Scott Foxworth, and Scott (Fabi) Rancour, along with grandchildren Kari Smith, Tori Tijerina, Matthew Tijerina Olivia Sanchez, Emily Sanchez, Erica Rancour, Marianna Rancour, Isaac Rancour, and great grandchildren Kenzlie and Kayd Smith.

Starting a family at a young age may have derailed Tom's plans for college but he went on to succeed in business through hard work and a keen mind. He worked in industrial manufacturing in engineering and sales, working his way into leadership positions.

But what Tom really loved was physical work, using his hands and engineering mind to build and repair all manner of things. He especially enjoyed working with wood. His children and grandchildren all have at least one piece that "Paw-Paw" Tom built. Tom realized his dream of leaving the business world and long commutes in Houston traffic behind when he and Judy retired to the woods in East Texas. His workshop was a thing of beauty and bigger than many homes. Yet it was perfectly organized and appointed.

Dementia and crippling back pain took away his ability to do the physical chores he loved, yet his playful sense of humor could still be found, even in his last days.

While we must say goodbye to him on earth now, we know Tom is rejoicing in his new perfect body in Heaven and full of life and we will see him again one day.

The family would ask that donations be made in Tom's memory, to the Alzheimer Association.

The condolences of the Addison family and staff go out to his family and friends.

“ Tom holds a huge place in my heart. The lord brings us all together for some reason or another. I can't say thank you enough my friend for being such an amazing person. I have missed you these last few months but there wasn't a day that went by I wasn't praying for you. I'm thankful you are in Heaven surrounded by Our lord and those who love you. One day we will meet again...

“ My precious Uncle Tom... I am so sad you're gone, but am so happy you're where you are now. I have so many memories of you that will forever remain in my heart. The way you took care of everyone around you, especially family. The way you were always patient and kind when showing me how to do something. The way you buttered ALL the rolls or biscuits for everyone at the table. The way you shared WHATEVER you had that I needed. Your excitement over getting our Scag mowers. The way you didn't like cats until Miss Kitty showed up and she showed you how much love she could give. There are just so many memories I have of you... I could go on all day. Your heart, your love, your nurturing soul were a true blessing in my life. You will always remain my "favorite Uncle Tom". I will see you again someday!

Love,
Your Bitty Anne

“ My Daddy went home to be with his Mother, Daddy, Sister and youngest daughter yesterday November 4, 2020.

I miss him so much.

He was the perfect father, not perfect in every way just the perfect one for me and my siblings. He loved each of us completely and without bias. We are all his kids.

He loved his wife, Judy, more than anything in this world. They did everything together; work in the yard, clean the house or the cars, go for motorcycle rides and always shared whatever the other had.

He was so proud of all his grandchildren too. His eyes would light up and smile broaden just knowing any or all of them were coming to visit. I will never forget how he taught Kari to drive a stick shift and did not even bat an eye when she backed into a tree with his red jeep. If that had been one of his children we would have been severely chastised, but the grandchildren they could do no wrong in his eyes.

Daddy lived to see his great grandchildren, of which he has three. They all know of his love and devotion for them.

I will never forget how he loved Brandy and Daisy too. I learned how to spoil a dog by watching him.

He was always giving of his time, whether he truly had it or not, to those around him. It may have been to a neighbor needing help with a car or household project, a relative needing advise on anything or me just needing him by my side.

He was the most tireless worker I have ever known, would not quit until the job was done no matter the personal cost in discomfort the next day.

I learned so much about cars, mechanical stuff and woodworking. Every time I turn a wrench or sand a piece of wood I think of how he would do it so it came out perfect. He also taught me how to treat people fairly and with respect, more things I use every day.

Daddy was a life-long learner, he was always reading books or magazines to learn about a new project or how to make something better. He and Judy made some of the most beautiful heirloom quality furniture that each of his children and grandchildren enjoy and will pass on continuing his memory.

I know he is now well; no more pain, confusion or any ailment because he has a whole new body without imperfection given to him the very second he left this earth and was welcomed by all those who went before to help Jesus prepare a place for him. A place full of wonders we cannot even perceive, oh yes and all the BlueBell and Bar B Que he and the doggies could ever dream of.

I do miss my Daddy and always will. He is my friend, confidant, mentor and guide throughout my life and I know when the Good Lord calls me home we will meet on that beautiful shore.

I love you Daddy, you are my hero.
