“ Thomas was one of a kind. He was a year older than I was-(sister) Susie's class-and I didn't know much about him in those days. I guess I learned more about Thomas in the past 10 years. Like (brother) Steve said, he brought his famous potato salad to our family get togethers and it was great. At one of our get togethers he told us he had baby pecan trees he had started from his big tree in his yard in Tomball. He offered to give us some, so my husband and I went to pick them up. When we got there, we saw that he had about 25 containers with baby trees, like a nursery. He was also cooking brisket (or ribs?) and loaded us up with some of that too. I was surprised and touched by his generosity and kindness, qualities I had never realized about Thomas in high school. Another surprise for me at a gathering at (brother) Steve's in Brenham was that Thomas seemed to know most of our birthdays in the family! When we talked he said things that he had obviously put thought into, usually sounding philosophical-always with a smile. I wish we had had more get-togethers. Unfortunately, these had to be postponed, due to the times, so I hadn't seen Thomas in a while. We will miss Thomas. But I am glad that I did get to know him better in our later years.

“ Thomas and I became friends when we worked together in the 1960's at Perry's on Main Street in small downtown Tomball. We were the only young ones as we thought everyone else was old. Most were not as old as we thought. By todays standards we don't think we are old now. Ricky so sorry to hear about the loss of Thomas.

“ Tom was one of a kind. As cordial as any gentleman could be. I had a dog named E.J. and when Tom would drop in for a visit (we lived five blocks apart), he would always say, "E.J., the Wonder Dog". I'm sure he did that for everyone's animal. Conversations with Tom were unique, as they mainly consisted of just witty back and forth to make each other laugh. I guess I can keep that book about The Great Pyramid of Giza now (that I borrowed ten years ago). And if you needed someone to play chess with, Tom was the guy. Every memory of Tom will be a good one.

“ My brother and I could always expect a phone call on our birthdays from Thomas. I tried to do the same for his birthday but he was much better at remembering mine than I was at remembering his. All we had to do was ask for help on a building project and Thomas was there ready and willing to join the effort. And when he came to a family fish-fry he always showed up with a bowl of his specialty homemade potato salad...every piece of celery and potato cut to precise dimensions.

To me, Thomas was a college roommate, a willing “helping-hand” and a good family friend...and a pretty good side-dish chef...

We’re gonna miss him.

“ Tom was sort of my kid brother in addition to being Rick's actual kid brother. The three of us shared many a laugh and that memory will remain with me. I am so glad that over the past few years we had reconnected. I am so sad he is no longer among us.
