

Thomas "Tommy" Leroy Edgar

November 19, 2024

Tommy Edgar passed away in his home of Waller, Texas, on November 19, 2024. Tommy was a self-employed mechanic who loved his family and his children deeply. He was a strong believer in God and Jesus Christ, and was kind and considerate to those in need. While not a perfect man, he was funny and unforgettable, leaving a lasting impression on everyone who knew him. He is survived by his wife, Hannah Edgar; his parents, Shirley DeMello and Rick Hecke; his siblings, Stacey Edgar and Leanne Walker (Luke Walker); his children, Rhiannon Champagne (Kevin), Sarah Masterson (Richard), Debra Rose Edgar, and Hannah Avis Edgar Jr.; and his granddaughter, Rachel Reed-Champagne. Tommy will be remembered and missed by all who loved him.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Edgar family during this difficult time.

“ I will always have love for Tommy. He was the only man who gave me a child (Sarah). And did he love her. He called her my Sarah. We are very sad to see him gone. His first grandchild will be born July 2025. Love always

“ Well Tommy was a character by any means.i can remember waiting for the school bus before school and troy and Trevor Wingart, my brother Neil, Tommy and myself, we would get. Cigarettes from our dads, them unaware of course and smoked them so fast we got head rushes,lol. Later in life he had that crazy dog Odie and it hated Matt Wolf but he didn't care. That pooch would take a motion to not like one of us and Tommy would have his hAnds full. It was all In fun. I'll leave the stories of other ventures with those of us who may or may not of been around, but it was always an adventure. We all grew up together, worked together, faught each other and against others. I guess Tommy and Eric Gaddis can finally wrestle again.lol. miss both of you. May your soul find rest Tommy. Your old friend BB
