I have known Tim and Kathy since our kids were little. We went to church at Magnolia's First until they moved away. Tim was always busy doing something around the house and helping others. He will be missed very much. Jeanette

“ Tim, thanks for the memories. We are going to miss your silliness and how taking a picture with you had several takes because you were the one to make a funny gesture or make a silly face. We love you beyond measure. The hole you’re leaving here will be felt for a long time, but we rest peacefully because we know you’re with Jesus. We will see you again on the other side of eternity. Thank you for loving your family so well.
