“ My family and I knew Travis as a true gentleman. During our younger days he was my mentor and my older brother whenever I needed one. He introduced me to country, and tried his best to guide me through the songs we often lived together. Our friendship is forever tucked away in my chest of cherished memories. I love you, my brother. We will meet again.

“ So sorry to hear this. Travis was a great friend. I grew up in Freer with Travis. He was one of the coolest guys at Freer High.. Then I went to college at Southwest Texas where I have to admit I was honored to spend many crazy evenings partying with the best of the best....Travis Skinner. So many memories, Travis and Bennie Newman playing folk music and singing...visits to the Eastwood Country Club in San Antonio...Travis was indeed a "character", a good friend, one of the most intelligent men I ever met; he was kind and funny, and wise. I know that all who loved him are missing him. Love ya Travis....see ya soon.

“ Travis was like a big brother to me when we were growing up in Freer. Our families were very close. Travis also worked for my dad at Oliwell Supply in Freer for several years. The Lord's peace be with his family. I hope to be at the service. We live in Cypress. ...Mike Long
