“ I will always remember the first get together we went to at Bethel, he had a pie thrown in his face. I will always remember his great voice, he was such a Blessing to all that knew him. Condolences and love to Marty and the family.

“ My name is Charles Goodson I served as pastor of churches in Texas for 60+years.
When I became acquainted with Bro. Vic I immediately knew he was a man that loved God and the first time he sang for the worship services my opinion of him did not change.
Bro. Vic sang for God's glory alone, but if you were blessed he would simply say," thank you, I'm glad you enjoyed it." What I loved about hearing Bro. Vic sing his was not a performance, but it was worship. If you heard him sing, "The Anchor," you know what I mean. Hearts were blessed and real worship happened.

Thanks for the memories my Brother, see you in heaven in a few days!

Brother Vic was the first person whom I met at Bethel when we moved here, we were told that Bethel wasn't open. Then I saw Brother Vic working , cleaning up the church 🏠 yard, so I stopped to talk to him. He reassured me that the church was definitely open.. The way he was talking about the church and it's members,I could tell it was a very loving place to worship! I could tell by his voice that he loved the Lord with his whole heart ❤️!
He will be greatly missed!!

“ Bro. Vic brought a great deal of blessings to a lot of folks through his love of the Lord, his testimony and most of all his music. I know because of how he blessed me with his many songs, his testimony of what the Lord meant to him and how he was blessed in leading a “stranger” to the Lord. He and Sister Marty have a special place on my heart. Vics memory will always be fresh as long as we have access to his music. Gone but not forgotten. Love you! Virgil and Cheryl Harper

“ Vic was a good friend to anybody he met, even me. He had the southern "good 'ol boy" knack of storytelling. My favorite was his story about the "dam B" road in East Texas. He had a really good singing voice when he was younger and he good health. His favorite songs were those that honored and testified of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will be missed, but I look forward to seeing him again in Heaven.
