“ Many times when Vicki had a doctor's appointment or just wanted to go somewhere, I had the privilege of helping her and visiting with her.

She LOVED the Lord, her animals and gardening.

She was the sweetest person, the type that would give you her shirt off her back, even when she was suffering physically.

She will be GREATLY missed.

“ Vicki was the closest thing to an angel I have ever known. I can't say enough good things about her. In good times and bad times she was always my best friend. I was truly blessed to have her in my life. There is a big hole in my heart that can never be filled. I know she is in heaven. She was sick for such a long time but as always she made the best of it. We loved each other more than I can say. I am lost without her but I know she is in a better place now. Wish I was stronger but I could never be as strong as she was. I will always love her.

“ Vicki was my best friend. We met at a Neighborhood Crime Watch meeting after the fires in 2011. Our favorite place to eat was the King’s Palace off 249. She was the bravest woman I have ever meet. She stared diabetes in the face and concurred it. She’s up in heaven with her weenie dog Lucy n my chiweenie Abbygayle. RIP my friend til we meet again. Debbie and Dennis Cogsdil of Hockley Texas.

I was truly blessed to have Vickie as a cousin. Although we were separated by distance, we always kept in touch. We’d call each other several times a year and talk about our childhood as well as update each other on our kids and extended family. I’d get the “inside scoop” on all things Mooneyham! --- Of course, Facebook was a place to find pictures and discover what Vickie was up to. I always admired her sewing and crafting skills. --- But back to our phone conversations, she would share with me her medical struggles and I would listen. My heart went out to her, and I wondered why some people have to suffer more than others. It didn't seem fair. Then we would talk about our faith in Jesus Christ and promise to pray for each other. I will miss Vickie very much, but knowing that we’ll meet again on the other side makes me smile. That is the hope that we have in Christ. Amen
