

Virginia Ray Chorak

July 27, 2015

Virginia Ray Chorak, 78, beloved mother and grandmother, of Boerne, Texas, went home to be with the Lord on Monday July 27, 2015.

Virginia was born on January 8, 1937 in Mertzon, Texas. She married the first love of her life, Charles Allgood. The Allgoods settled in Brownwood, Texas and raised their three children. Virginia devoted her life to her family and friends and actively participated in her local church.

Later, in life Virginia moved to Magnolia, Texas where she met her second husband Pete Chorak. Together, the two of them built a life of travel and landscaping. Virginia loved living in Magnolia and would refer to the small town as a little piece of heaven in the woods.

Virginia moved from her longtime residence in Magnolia, Texas to the hill country after she lost her late husband Pete. She found the move rewarding, as she spent her days doing what she did best, serving the lord and finding a good garage sale with her best friend and sister Deloris Huffman.

Virginia focused her time and passion on caring for her family, friends and actively participating in her church. Always believing in hope and miracles, she inspired others to be strong, never give-up and be kind. She had a heart of absolute gold that showed in her every action.

Virginia will live on in the hearts of many, but her physical presence will be dearly missed. Her smile lit up a room and her heart emitted a rare light recognizable to everyone she met. Heaven has most definitely gained an angel, our monumental loss is the Lord's gain.

She is survived by her children, Charles Allgood and wife, Kathy, Crena Allgood Mirahmadi-Zoghi; grandchildren Amy Goode and husband, Derrick, Jackie Coates, Billy Allgood and wife, Christi, Christy Fraser and husband, Jason, Aubrey Coates and wife, Kim, Seyed Mirahmadi-Zoghi, Nayerah Mirahmadi-Zoghi, Shani Robertson and husband, Mike; great grandchildren Maddyson, Jaycee, Lexie, Peyton, Abby, Laney, Ava, Ellie, Lilliana, Kaiden, Kennedy; siblings, Deloris Huffman and husband, Jerry, Hilton Brooks and numerous nieces and nephews. Virginia is preceded in death by her mother and father, Maxine and Clarence Brooks; husbands, Charles Allgood and Pete Chorak; her son John Edward Allgood.
