

Vivian Lucrecia Southerland

August 11, 2020

Ms. Vivian Lucrecia Southerland, born on July 7, 1941 in Dayton, Ohio, passed away on August 11, 2020 in The Woodlands, Texas.

To Vivian, her family was her world. For years she endured many hardships, in effort to provide for her children, as a strong and courageous single mother of 4. She worked tirelessly as a Chemical Sales Representative to ensure that her children were well taken care of. She loved them each so dearly to the end and her unconditional love will remain with them forever.

She would never turn down an opportunity to spend time with family and always looked forward to seeing them for holidays or special random visits. When she was with them, you could always tell she was her happiest. The joy in her eyes and the smile on her face will live on for decades to come.

Her hobbies included, spending time with her beloved pets; Lexie and Ellie, crafting, wood working and collecting. For more than 10 years she owned a Knick knack shop in Old Town Spring. She was always so grateful for what she was blessed with and found joy in donating to those less fortunate when given the opportunity. She was so kind and loving to everyone she met and, in her time, she touched the lives of many.

Vivian accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior in the summer of 2011 at Lakewood Church in Houston Texas, led by Pastor Joel Osteen Jr.

She was predeceased by her parents, Chester L and Carolyn A Abery. Daughter, Sandra R. Southerland. Sister Linda Smith and Niece Wendy Smith.

She is survived by her children; Gregory Southerland and wife, Vicki, Timothy Southerland and wife, Gina, and Kenneth Southerland and wife, Tina.

Grandchildren; Whitney Marquardt and Husband, Adam, Joshua Southerland and wife, Nancy, Jeremy Southerland and wife, Heather, Nicole Southerland and Dane, Brandon Southerland and wife, Miranda, Ashley Southerland and Jaidyn Southerland. “ i started working for Vivian in her shop in 2009, I believe. She needed holiday help but was wary of hiring a stranger, but gradually I gained her trust. Her shop sold quality collectibles for all ages, gifts, and home decor. Working side-by-side for hours on end, we shared a lot of our lives to each other and became fast friends. I so enjoyed her stories of how she had succeeded in a man’s world of selling chemicals to provide for her children. She was a strong lady & loved her family fiercely.

Vivian had good instincts and was good at selecting items for the shop. Owning and running a shop is a physically and emotionally demanding job but Vivian enjoyed it and worked tirelessly to make it a success. She had many loyal customers who enjoyed her shop and seeing her. Finally she made the difficult decision to retire & close shop. I missed working with her but was glad she could finally enjoy a well deserved rest. You were a dear friend and I will miss you very much.

“ Vivian Southerland was the sweetest and most loving woman. She always thought of other people and she loved her family. I am not apart of the family but she made me feel like I was. My heart goes out to the family. May she Rest In Peace. Heaven definitely gained an angel.

“ Vivian was a dear friend to both me and Roger. We first met her when we visited her shop in Old Town Spring. It was a magical place filled from floor to ceiling with every kind of gift you could imagine. At the counter sat Vivian waiting to help. We fell in love with shop and her and a friendship of a life time began. I will always remember when we took her Georgia to visit Babyland home of the Cabbage Patch Kids. What fun she had and so did we. To the family I send all my love and prayers during this special time. I can say I know how you now for my Roger passed way on May 18th. The peace I have now is that Roger and Vivian are together again in Heaven and they are catching up. Much love to you all.
