

William "Bill" Adams

April 9, 2026

William "Bill" Henry Adams passed away in Conroe, Texas on Thursday April 9th, 2026 after 70 well lived years. He was surrounded by his family during his sudden departure and the beginning of his journey to heaven. Bill was born in Monahans, Texas. He graduated from Odessa High School in 1973 and went on to obtain his Bachelors of Theology from Dallas Christian College.

Bill was a devoted husband, father and friend. An avid outdoorsman, a dog lover and a lifelong Dallas Cowboy fan: he enjoyed hunting, golf and time spent on the lake with family and friends.

Bill held different careers over the years: from pastor of the Central Christian Church in Sabinal, to the Chief of Police in Sabinal; to the wildlife game manager for one of the largest ranches in the State of Texas. Bill and wife Cindy successfully opened and operated the first Drive-Thru Beverage Barn in Sabinal.

After retirement Bill & Cindy moved to the greater Conroe area to be closer to and able to spend more time with their two grandchildren.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents Otis Blake and Garnett June Adams of Taylor, Texas; his brother Blake Henderson Adams of Seguin, Texas; and his sister Cherry Lucille Adams of San Marcos, Texas.

He is survived by his loving wife, Cindy King Adams of Montgomery, Texas; his sister Iris Carroll Armour of Uvalde, Texas; his son Nathanael Blake Adams of Giddings, Texas; his daughter Marisa Lynn Adams Holliday and her husband David Glenn Holliday along with their two children Jay William Holliday and Adriana Glynn Holliday, all of Conroe, Texas.

Details of a memorial service to follow: No funeral is planned as the family will return Bill's ashes to his favorite place on this Earth at a later date.

Bill was a great man and will be missed by many.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to William's family and friends during this difficult time.

No services are scheduled through the funeral home.
