

William "Bill" Shows

October 8, 2022

William "Bill" Shows, age 85 of Tomball, passed away October 8, 2022, surrounded by his loving family.

William R. Shows was a devoted husband to Jo Nan Shows and father to their six children. He worked tirelessly to provide for his family for over 39 years. He was a quiet, introverted man but could be found enjoying the raucous energy and laughter of his family, occasionally tossing out a single zinger that would level us all. He was a talented craftsman, making several pieces of furniture for our family out of the discarded materials of others. He held great regard for nature and devoted hours to his garden and small plot of ground, always careful to respect the natural environment and its inhabitants in his pursuits. If there was a pecan tree in his vicinity, you knew he'd be there, leaning over and saying "Ah, look E here," and then showing us how to crack it with our teeth. "It just makes your teeth stronger," he'd say. Dad had to be so many things for our family: a carpenter, roofer, plumber, mechanic, chef, and the lap we'd climb on. And as we grew up, he became the calm voice of reason we all at times needed. He loved God and his Son and believed in them without exception. And his union with our mother in Their presence is something to be celebrated.

The Addison family and staff of Magnolia Funeral Home extend condolences to the Shows family during this difficult time.
